25th Annual USC National Trauma, Emergency Surgery and Surgical Critical Care Symposium

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The annual USC National Trauma, Emergency Surgery and Surgical Critical Care Symposium is hosted by the Division of Acute Care Surgery at the Los Angeles County+University of Southern California (LAC+USC) Medical Center, one of the largest trauma centers in the United States. The symposium features cutting edge lectures, high caliber plenary sessions, interactive and provocative panel discussions, and inspiring keynote addresses by leaders in the field of acute care surgery, trauma and surgical critical care. A balance between evidence-based principles and innovative thought-provoking discussion will be maintained during lively expert debates. Each session focuses on understanding the latest medical controversies and the implementation of practical procedural skills.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This course is intended for physicians, nurses, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, emergency medical technicians, paramedics and other medical personnel working in the field of acute care surgery and trauma care, as well as all allied health professionals who care for adults and seek to enhance their understanding of trauma care and treatment options to optimize management of their patients.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Frank Gardner, BBC Security Correspondent

Frank Gardner is the BBC's award-winning Security Correspondent, reporting on a wide range of global security and terrorism stories. He has written three Sunday Times bestsellers: Blood and Sand, Far Horizons and Crisis. His bestseller Crisis will become a Hollywood TV series.

While filming in Saudi Arabia in 2004, Frank was shot six times at close range by terrorists but survived after numerous operations and many months of hospitalization. From 1997-2000 Frank was the BBC's Gulf Correspondent in Dubai, then BBC Middle East Correspondent in Cairo. He was awarded the OBE by HM the Queen in 2005 for services to journalism, Honorary Doctorates of Laws from 7 British universities, the McWhirter Award for Bravery, Spain's El Mundo Prize for International Journalism, the UAE's Zayed Medal for Journalism and voted Person of the Year by the UK Press Gazette.

Margaret P. Knudson, MD, FACS

M. Margaret (Peggy) Knudson MD, FACS is a Professor at the University of California at San Francisco. For 20 years, she served as the Director of the San Francisco Injury Center for Research and Prevention, one of the first CDC-funded Centers nationally. Her research focuses on resuscitation, venous thromboembolic disease, and pediatric injury prevention. Dr. Knudson served on the Committee on Trauma for 17 years, including 4 years as the Vice-Chair for the central COT. She was awarded the National Safety Council Award from the COT/AAST for her work in trauma and injury prevention. She has also been on the Board of Managers of both the Western Trauma Association and the American Association for the Surgery of Trauma. She served as the Science Chair for the National Trauma Institute for 4 years and continues on their Board of Directors. Dr. Knudson has recently been appointed as the Medical Director for the Military Health System Strategic Partnership with the American College of Surgeons.
